

The Journal of Humanitarian Affairs

Call for submissions

The Journal of
HUMANITARIAN AFFAIRS

MANCHESTER
1824

Manchester University Press

The Journal of Humanitarian Affairs is an Open Access journal hosted jointly by The Humanitarian Affairs Team at Save the Children UK, the Centre de Réflexion sur l'Action et les Savoirs Humanitaires MSF (Paris), and the Humanitarian and Conflict Response Institute at the University of Manchester.

“The humanitarian sector is growing and is facing ethical and practical challenges. The Journal of Humanitarian Affairs provides a space for serious and inter-disciplinary academic and practitioner exchanges on pressing issues of international interest.”

We welcome submissions on a broad range of issue relating to humanitarianism, We are particularly keen to encourage submissions that offer a critical perspective on the following: the political economy of humanitarianism; humanitarian histories; forced migration and refugee responses; emergency relief operations; media representations of humanitarianism; humanitarian governance and international order; the relationship between humanitarianism, rights, and development; humanitarian wars; the coloniality of humanitarian aid; humanitarianism and race; humanitarian ethics and political minimalism; humanitarian security; resilience; and climate change and the future of humanitarian action.

Editors

Fernando Espada (Save the Children), Juliano Fiori (Save the Children), Duncan McLean (MSF Switzerland-UREPH), Tanja Müller (University of Manchester), Michaël Neuman (MSF-CRASH), Róisín Read (University of Manchester), Isabelle Schläpfer (University of Manchester), Gemma Sou (University of Manchester and RMIT University) and Bertrand Taithe (University of Manchester)

<https://manchesteruniversitypress.co.uk/journals/journal-humanitarian-affairs/>

